BY GERMAN CRUISER

This is one of the three fine steamers recently captured by the German cruiser Carlsruhe off the South American coast. The Vamlyke is the property of the Lanport and Holt line. She was bound for New York with a rich cargo of chilled meat, hides and coffee, all manifested for American merchants. The Vandyke left Rio de Janeiro on October 20. In addition to her cargo of 30,000 quarters of beef she had abound 2000 tons of coal, which it is understood the Kurlsruhe transferred to her own bunkers. The Vaudyke is the steamer which took ex-president Roosevelt to South America at the beginning of his South American exploring

CHILD MISTREATED; MEXICAN IS SOUGHT

Retilda Rodriguez, a 7 year old Mexican school girl, was taken to the mesa Monday afternoon by an unknown Mexican and, according to physicians, was assaulted.

The little Mexican girl was returning from the Sunset school at 3 oclock Monday afternoon. When she reached the intersection of Rio Grande and Oregon streets she met the Mexican who she says, told her that he was a friend of her parents and that they wished him to take her to a house on the mesa to get some somp for her mother. He also gave the little girl some mandy, she also gave the little girl some mandy, she said.

The little girl returned to her home on Chihushua street after dark and fainted when she reached the deoryard. Her parents were away at the time and neighbors took her to their home and called the emergency hospital ambulance and she was taken to the city hospital at the central station. She said that the man threatened to kill her. The girl gave a description of the Mexican and the police are making a search for him. The doctors say that the little girl will recover.

Fund for Reward Staried.

H. Y. Ellis Tuesday offered 110 toward a fund to be offered as a reward for the capture and arrest of the Mexican who is charged with assaulting Hetilida Rodrigues, the 7 year old Mexican girl.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

Capt. S. Biffill, her assistant, and Capt. Bessie Carr.

Mrs. Rue Jackson, the treasurer of the Rescue Home association, read her report. She said that the first meeting, at which the Rescue Home association or obstruction in a dangerous time, at which the Rescue Home association was formed, was held February 12. The building was begun May 11, and completed September 8. With the furnishings its value is estimated at close to $2000. At the close of her report Mrs. Jackson officially turned over the management of the Rescue home to the Salvation Army.

Mrs. T. A. Plit sang several hymns in which the audience joined. Mrs. Charles L. Overstreet played her accompaniment. Miss Annie Stoiscroff playing his accompaniment. Rev. Perry J. Rice closed the program with the benediction.

Expression of the appreciation of the members of the association were made for the work of Mrs. Pitt, of S. E. Pinex is a highly one of our hest friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a danger ous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—beal the inflammed membranes. Here is a home made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2½ counces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.
